

FRANK T. KNOCK
FURNITURE CO. INC.

311 SEVENTH STREET
OPPOSITE SAKS & CO.

Big Values in Spring Furniture That Are Making Big Business at Washington's Popular Furniture House Liberal Credit Plan

$27.75

For This Elegant Brass Bed Outfit

Consisting of One Heavy 2-inch-post Brass Bed,
 One Genuine Woven-wire Iron
 Spring,
 One Fine Felt and Fiber Mattress.
 Value, $35.

$9.75
For This Wood Body
Sleeper Go-Cart
Imperial leather hood, beautifully finished.
Value, $16.50

$3.98
For Up-to-date Full Collapsible Go-Cart. Value, $9.50

1913 Zero & Buffalo Refrigerators

In all sizes; including white enamel and porcelain lined. Best construction; guaranteed charcoal filled. Prices start at $5.75

$14.75

For This Complete Dining Room Outfit

Consisting of genuine solid oak extension table, with claw feet and fluted base and four American quartered oak dining chairs; value, $22.00.

Each chair and table is individually illustrated. The table is a round extension table with a fluted base and claw feet. The chairs are American quartered oak dining chairs. The illustration is signed 'K. H. H. 1941' in the bottom right corner.

$18.50

For This Elegant 3-piece Crotch Mahogany Parlor Suite

Exactly like illustration. Beautiful claw feet, polished finish; spring seat; loose cushions; richly upholstered. Actual value, $30.00.

FRANK T. KNOCK FURNITURE CO., 311 Seventh Street Opposite Saks & Co.

week just past. That tender by the white citizens was given at the Williard Hotel Wednesday evening while the affair was being held at the
 at the M Street High School Friday afternoon. Both affairs proved to be memorable tributes to the man who had so long been identified with the work of the public schools of this city.
 Following a program of addresses at the affair Wednesday evening, Capt.
 Oyster shook the hands of about a thousand well-wishers. He was assisted by the following persons: Dr.
 W. M. Davidson, superintendent of schools; A. T. Stuart, director of intermediate schools; Miss Elizabeth V. Brown, director of primary instruction; Ernest L. Thurston, assistant superintendent of schools; Justice Barnum; Henry P. Blair, president of the board of education; Mrs. Edith Kingead; E. H. Daniel, all members of the board; Miss Anna Beers, Miss F. L. Hendrickson, B. W. Nunnally, S. J. Atkinson, S. M. Ely, Dr. G. E. Kimball, S. E. Kramer and Dr. Hosmer M.
 Johnson and the wives of the officials.

Juniors of McKinley Manual Training School will hold an entertainment at the Lincoln Hotel Saturday evening.
 Dancing will follow the program.

and shoot a gun.
 The following were presented to the officers: Capt. Carl M. Noetzel of company E, Capt. Edwin H. Johnson of company D, Frank C. Franklin, bell, regimental quartermaster; First Lieut. Joseph P. Van Overmeer of company G, Second Lieut. Fred B. Bell of company G, Second Lieut. Fred D. Connor of company E, Second Lieut.
 Norman W. Barrett of company G, Second Lieut. H. W. Wilson of company G. One of the boys last named recently resigned.

"School Honor" was the subject of an address made by the Milley at Central High School Wednesday.

Rev. A. B. Bates, principal of the Teachers' Training school, was here yesterday to visit the schools this week. He visited the new normal school at 11th and Harvard streets and there met the principals of the other schools carried on in this country. In many points, said Mr. Bates, the training here is similar to that done in his own school.

Pies for the school lunch, to be held May 7, were discussed at a meeting of the girls of Central High School, held in the assembly hall Thursday.

Members of the dramatic society of "Tech," which was recently organized under the direction of Miss Loreta Williams, are practicing their parts

Tracy Wayman, Milton Opey, Oss
 Burke, James Minor, Henry Penn
 William Chandler.

Teachers and children of the John Slater School were given a phono-graphed Friday afternoon at Graves.

In speaking at the testimonial receptended him by the colored teachers, officials and employees of the schools at M Street High School Friday afternoon, Capt. James F. Oyster, retiring president of the board of education, said in part:
 "I have been very fortunate in my life teachers and other employees of the board of education, to the schools in the exercise of my duties. I am glad to say ever since I reached man's estate, I have been deeply interested in public education. It has been a constant interest the only assurance of perpetuity that great democratic nation like ours requires has thus in its history become a fundamental principle of our government. course its rulers. Its rulers, it is course, are its citizens. So a democmous must provide for the future of the people. Birth, however slight abilities, however modest his prosper-ty, with the most appropriate and advantageous opportunity for the development of his civic character and civic intelligence.
 Public schools, then, are vital to the welfare of the community and the operative nation. It is the duty and business of all the people to promote

Officers of the two-year Junior graduating class of 1913 of Business High School have been elected as follows:

President, J. S. Struble; Vice President, Miss Elizabeth V. Berens; Treasurer, Arthur C. Israel; and Secretary, Miss Mary N. C.

McKinley Manual Training School is having a running track and tennis court made and fenced in, the repair work being done by the school work. Expenses of making the cinder track and other expenses incurred in the building will be paid and borne by the athletic association of the school.

Advantages of the training afforded by the high school cadet organization were discussed by Lieut. Col. Luther A. Smith at the annual luncheon of the District of Columbia, and who was the first colonel of the High School Cadet Corps.

Assemblies for the discussion of the annual school lunch of Business High School were held at the school Wednesday afternoon, June 10, 1914.

The officers of the two-year Junior graduating class of 1913 of Business High School have been elected as follows:

President, J. S. Struble; Vice President, Miss Elizabeth V. Berens; Treasurer, Arthur C. Israel; and Secretary, Miss Mary N. C.

McKinley Manual Training School is having a running track and tennis court made and fenced in, the repair work being done by the school work. Expenses of making the cinder track and other expenses incurred in the building will be paid and borne by the athletic association of the school.

Advantages of the training afforded by the high school cadet organization were discussed by Lieut. Col. Luther A. Smith at the annual luncheon of the District of Columbia, and who was the first colonel of the High School Cadet Corps.

Assemblies for the discussion of the annual school lunch of Business High School were held at the school Wednesday afternoon, June 10, 1914.

School Thursday morning. The occasion of the address was the presentation of commissions to the officers at the rank of Dr. Reichelderfer is now the ranking officer of the District of Columbia. He has won prizes in several rifle matches, and was at one time a teacher in the Business School.

The military effects of cadet training (The annual reunion of the class of 1907